Rather Enjoying Myself, Thanks

I love it how to find a lost book
I merely have to look away and then back
At the same shelf.
Missing a moment ago,
It now appears,
Thick, hardbound, full-color jacket—
Obvious.
The same thing happens with
Gloves, tools
(I love my mechanic dad's story
Of opening the hood of a customer's car
To find the wrench left there a week ago—
He knew where to look),
Gloves, tool, I said,
Coffee cups
(I'll not mention the clichéd car keys).
Think I'll turn right onto the next street,
See where I come out.
I'll find it.
