1. O Lord, you shel - ter us in peace since once you hurled the earth in space.
2. Your an - ger ter - ri - fies us, Lord - with hoard - ed guilt we fear your power.
3. Re - lent, O Lord, and pit - y us; send love to stop our suf - fering cries.

From ev - er - last - ing you are God - be - fore you starred the night's dark face.
In fleet - ing time we cringe and moan and with - er like a wilt - ed flower.
For ev - ery pain, stir us with joy, sing us di - vin - est lul - la - bies.

In time that pass - es like the wind you turn our bod - ies back to dust.
In awe we come to you, O Lord, our sin in - sults your right - eous eye;
Show us your mar - velous deeds, O Lord, show child - ren mir - a - cles of old;

To you a thou - sand years fly by like leaves be - fore a prai - rie gust.
so teach us now to count our days and live for you be - fore we die.
and bless the work our hands would do, es - tab - lish it ten thou - sand - fold.
