Bill Elgersma

A day of sleety rain two days of snow and wind then sunshine.
Sun dogs on eastern skies forecast temperature as shadows on white drifts show gray.

The wind blows
tired now from so much work, lonely now whipping along the blue mounds where steam appears to rise off banks behind hedge and tree —a rural rock concert complete with smoke machines—

The light show is lacking simply a day concert where fans wrap in blankets, sit behind windows and sip hot chocolate while the band plays on.
