ready for christmas?

by John Zinkand

day after thanksgiving, kickoff
for christmas countdown.
shopping days till xmas no longer differ from the actual count for sundays have joined the ranks.
no rest for days of rest.

from now till then
time grows short to get your bargains from santa, elves, reindeer all enlisted in mammon's army (salvation's out in the cold) tinsel, tree, canes (cardboard peppermint)
all are ready for christmas or "holidays" for those who don't want to offend merchants of different faith or none at all.
yet all confess the christmas creed:
(established well, empirical fact) gullible public, cash, card in hand is ready to buy something, most anything cheap, expensive, gaudy, pretty, practical, worthless, unwanted—whatever—they want to buy it—thank god, for they all are
ready for christmas.
