Maranatha Marathon

Brian Huseland

Isaiah 66:1

*The mountains are God's shoes.
When he unties them: volcanoes.*

What is heaven
If not

Full of hoarse peace;
A peace which the runner owns
When the race is done . . .

If not

Full of glory in God's raw face,
His name weaving wreaths of hope
In His true people
Who revel in this new thing,
His robe rustling in our midst
And tumbling out to the brightswept corners
Of the undark Earth?
